Airborne - Across the Sky - CD Reviews

"Airborne was voted the Jazz Advocate - Reader's Poll #1 Jazz Band. This Airborne CD, Across the Sky contains some very intense and fast-paced tunes. Superb and outstanding soloists interweave within these wonderful compositions of funk and fusion to make this a great contemporary jazz project. The band keeps expanding to higher levels of musicianship, writing and arranging skills with each new endeavor."

Jazz Advocate

"The "Across the Sky" album by Airborne delivers some awesome, dynamic, and unique contemporary jazz with a cool jazz sound and style that is truly their own. Airborne's music evokes images of the inner city. Airborne is a brotherhood of talented musicians that naturally gel. Funk and jazz fusion fly in the sky on this album. Their high energy and creative compositions keep a groove that is quite hip on "Across the Sky"

Hip Magazine

"Across the Sky" shows the musical overtones of Airborne that are very strong, powerful, and exhilarating and listeners will appreciate the mixture of the funk and fusion in this new contemporary jazz album.

Packed with intensity and complexity their music, insight, and material maintains a high level of integrity. All of the musicians are very talented and Airborne as a group is starting to blossom with this new recording. The interaction and improvisation of the band members is superb.

"Across the Sky" is a wonderful contemporary jazz album recorded by some outstanding musicians"

Music Profile