Reviews

“You’d expect a contemporary jazz group that is called “musical peacemakers” to have a happy, upbeat sound. You get that with this veteran band, you also get top-quality musicianship and very creative compositions and arrangements with heft and plenty of sway” - Brian Soergel

“Everything about the bright, brassy contemporary jazz music of Airborne with its strong melody and ripples of percussion suggests that their outlook is a very positive, optimistic one and they aim to be as inclusive as possible. This wonderful sound of Airborne reflects many tastes and you will find things to like, whether it’s soul, Latin, reggae, world or some quite complex jazz” – Chris Mann

The band produces a unique multi-cultural sound that is funky, urban and uplifting all at the same time with a delicious throw back feel of some wonderful jazz eras. They reignite genuine old school funk and jazz fusion with hot Latin rhythms in a way that is part 5th Dimension, part Weather Report, and part Ambrosia with just a hint of Tower of Power thrown in for good measure. Totally typical of what Airborne does best, produce tracks of genuine substance. Tight, edgy, yet very smooth and spiced with some excellent musicianship and arrangements, everything that Airborne represents. A vibe that is uniquely Airborne, fresh and eclectic.

High Energy Contemporary Jazz! - Denis Poole – Smooth Jazz Therapy

What the world needs is more people who do what they love to do with purpose and confidence and because they love doing it. Genuine big-hearted jazz...delightful, lively and filled with life... joyful jazz with a message.” - Sandy Shore – Smoothjazz.com
